

In 1998, Scott Pottinger built our custom home. We initially chose Scott because of his exceptional reputation as a premier homebuilder. However, it soon became apparent that Scott was much more than quality homebuilder and we were delighted with our decision.

Scott's patience, flexibility and "go the extra mile" attitude made him a delight to work with. We also found him to be a man of integrity; honest, dependable and very responsible.

During construction, no detail went unnoticed. Scott is a perfectionist who holds his subs to the high standards of workmanship. These men respect Scott, following him from sight to sight.

After our home was finished, I noticed that we had none of the problems others (who had chosen not Scott to build for them) were having. Their complaints made me all the more glad that we used Scott Pottinger Custom Homes.

I enthusiastically recommend Scott. He built our dream home as though it were his own. I wouldn't consider anyone else.
